

Career Access Professional Services

Employment Resources for Students with Disabilities:

Career Access Professional Services (CAPS)

- Customized approach to skill-building and career development for students and alumni who identify as First Nations, persons with disabilities or LGBTQ+ identified persons

Student Accessibility Services - <https://sas.mcmaster.ca/>

- Provides support for McMaster students with disability-related needs and academic accommodations

Student Wellness Centre - <https://wellness.mcmaster.ca/>

- Offers professional counselling, wellness programs and medical services to McMaster students

MCMASTER RESOURCES

COMMUNITY RESOURCES TO GOOGLE FOR FINDING EMPLOYMENT:

Career Edge

Geared to graduates and provides paid internships

Community Living Hamilton

Offers a full range of services, including assistance with employment goals to persons with disabilities

Federal Student Work Program (FWSEP)

Opportunities are available with fair and equal access to student jobs by the Public Service of Canada

Goodwill, The Amity Group

Helps people overcome employment barriers and obtain work

PATH Employment Services

Helps persons with disabilities obtain and keep meaningful jobs by offering individual employment services and group workshops

Lime Connect

A global, non-for-profit organization geared toward university students and alumni to connect them with scholarships, internships, and full-time careers through working with corporate sponsors

March of Dimes

An organization that helps persons with disabilities find meaningful employment

Link Up

Provides employment services, including a job bank and advice about job searching

Specialisterne

Specializes in working with businesses to hire people on the Autism Spectrum

WORKink

Provides online job search tools and provides resources for employment and education