Opportunities for Paid Global Experiences Abroad

Global Affairs Canada - is a great site to visit to learn more about formal government sponsored volunteer and work opportunities. Of particular interest to students is the International Youth Internship Program. GAC manages Canada's support and resources effectively and accountably to achieve meaningful, sustainable results. While also engaging in policy development in Canada and internationally, enabling Canada's effort to realize its development objectives.

AIESEC -provides a global internship program for students and recent graduates with the opportunity to work abroad in the areas of management, information technology and development.

SWAP Working Holidays: The Student Work Abroad Program (SWAP) provides students with the means to combine periods of employment with time for exploring their host countries. By living and working in another country, a SWAP participant has a greater opportunity to learn about the people, lifestyles, and cultures of the host country. SWAP is facilitated by the Canadian Federation of Students (CFS).

International Experience Canada (IEC): Through bilateral youth mobility arrangements and agreements with different countries around the world, Canadians and non-Canadians can travel and work in each other's countries for up to one year.

World University Service of Canada: WUSC employs Canadian and international personnel overseas to manage projects, administer field office operations, provide technical advice and support our development work. Its mission is to foster human development and global understanding through education and training. Offers many ways to volunteer overseas including 'Uniterra' and 'Students without Borders'. Travel, Accommodation and Living costs covered.

Escape Artist: aims to be the comprehensive source for information, resources, analysis and insights for the international expat community. EscapeArtist was established with a mission to inspire and engage consumers with credible news and unique content while building an international expat community.

Expat Network: for over 20 years members of Expat Network have looked to us for assistance in their overseas job search and general support whilst on location and at home. For many expat members, we have become the link between a life overseas and a base in their country of residence.
