Meet the Academic Skills Team

Jenna Storey, Academic Skills Program Coordinator
Jenna is a professional staff member with 12 years of experience in secondary school English teaching. Jenna is a certified English as a Second Language (ESL) teacher and has a master's degree in education. Jenna is passionate about helping students achieve their academic goals and promoting pet adoption.

Holly Corbett, Program Development Specialist
Holly is a PhD candidate in the McMaster department of English and is currently a Program Development Specialist at the Academic Skills Team. Holly has a bachelor's degree in English and a master's degree in education. Holly's master's thesis examined the relationship between pedagogy and academic text comprehension. Holly works with the Academic Skills Team to support students in areas such as note-taking, test-taking and studying.

Mary McCaffery, Program Development Specialist
Mary is a Program Development Specialist at the Academic Skills Team. Mary has a master's degree in education and is currently preparing to pursue her PhD. Mary has a background in teaching and has been working on curriculum projects as a consultant in the private sector and for Yukon College. Mary manages the Writing Centre, which she currently supervises. In addition to her work with the Academic Skills Team, Mary is passionate about helping students achieve their academic goals and promoting pet adoption.

Jenny Knight, Undergraduate Peer Tutoring
Jenny is an academic skills tutor with 12 years of experience in secondary school English teaching. Jenny is a certified ESL teacher and has a master's degree in education. Jenny is passionate about helping students achieve their academic goals and promoting pet adoption.

 Helpful Resources

Academic Skills Development: A Guide for Undergrad Students

2021–2022