

VOLUNTEERING ON CAMPUS

Do you want to volunteer for personal or professional development? McMaster has many on-campus positions and clubs that offer a diverse range of opportunities to suit your interests.

The Benefits of Volunteering

On-Campus Clubs and Services

Explore volunteering opportunities at McMaster from student-led clubs to services provided by the university.

The McMaster Students Union (MSU)

- McMaster Smiling Over Sickness
- American Sign Language Club
- Best Buddies
- MacNutrition
- McMaster Muslim Student's Association
- COPE: A Student Mental Health Initiative
- McMaster's Health Haven
- Kids4Kids
- She's the First
- McMaster Aid for Children Team (M.A.C.T.)

David Brailey Athletic Centre (DBAC)

- Special Needs Assistance Program
- Superhero Training Academy
- McMaster Physical Activity Centre of Excellence (PACE)
- Strive for Health

International Student Services

- Buddy Program (Mentorship Program)

Student Accessibility Services (SAS)

- Student Note-Takers

Student Success Centre

- Program Support Assistant
- IRIS Theatre Program
- Stories from the Arch (Student Blogger)

Student Wellness Centre

- Wellness Outreach Peer Educators

Off-Campus Volunteering

Various organizations across Hamilton offer volunteer opportunities for students aimed at professional and personal growth. Can't find an organization you want to volunteer with? Google an organization, then type the word "volunteer" and start searching for positions and related opportunities. The options are limitless. Here are some more ways to get started:

Hamilton Public Library

- ELL (English-Language Learning) Tutoring
- Visiting Library Services

CityKidz

- Team Captains
- Team Members
- Cast Members
- City Youth Member
- Administration and Support
- Operations, Maintenance and Logistics
- Events Fundraising and Development
- Bus Drivers

St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton

- Patient Experience
- Patient Relations
- Peer Engagement
- Recreation
- Research and Education
- Retail
- Program Support

Search on OSCARplus > Student Success Centre > Volunteering for opportunities on and off campus. Or, email experiential@mcmaster.ca for assistance and more information.

