

Study abroad at McMaster University

Located in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada

Consistently ranking within the world's top universities, McMaster University provides a rich experience for its 37,000+ learners, including domestic, international, and exchange students. McMaster's vibrant campus offers a little bit of everything, from state-of-the-art living and learning facilities to student-focused services and amenities, acres of scenic, nature-filled spaces, and a community of students, staff, and faculty who can't wait to welcome you.

For more information, visit bit.ly/McMaster-Study-Abroad

Student Life at McMaster

There are so many ways to immerse yourself in student life at McMaster. Making friends, participating in diverse learning opportunities, getting involved in extracurricular activities and exploring all our campus has to offer — your experience is what you make of it.

Here are just a few highlights:

- Exclusive events and services
- Designated space for student life activities
- 300+ cultural, academic, and social clubs
- Access to The Pulse, one of Canada's largest fitness centres*
- City bus pass to explore Hamilton

* Included in the undergraduate program. Graduate and MBA students may opt-in for a fee.

 Not available to students in the MBA program.

Program availability

Course availability and offerings may vary. For the most up-to-date information, please contact the welcoming Faculty or relevant program office.

For more information, visit bit.ly/Mac-Incoming-Exchange

Student Success
Centre

